

Not all controls have evidence.

Controls with evidence:

5.8 Information security in project management — Found in ██████████ -Secure Development Lifecycle Policy V1.0: The policy embeds information security into project management by requiring security to be integrated into the system development lifecycle, including security requirements definition, secure design, and security reviews within project milestones.

5.25 Assessment and decision on information security events — Found in ██████████ -Log Management Policy V1.1: The policy defines requirements for monitoring and reviewing logs related to security events to assist in investigating malicious activities and trending security instances.

6.7 Remote working — Found in ██████████ -Mobile Device and Teleworking V1.1: The policy's purpose and scope explicitly state it governs teleworking and the use of mobile devices when working off ██████████ premises.

7.10 Storage media — Found in ██████████ -Mobile Device and Teleworking V1.1: The policy includes a dedicated section on removable media usage that addresses management through the lifecycle including encryption, secure storage, and disposal requirements.

8.7 Protection against malware — Found in ██████████ -Malware Protection Policy V1.1: The policy's stated purpose is to ensure anti-virus and anti-malware protection across information systems, with requirements for real-time protection, daily definition updates, and weekly scans.

8.13 Information backup — Found in ██████████ -Backup Policy V1.1: The policy's stated purpose is to define the need for performing periodic information system backups and includes backup and restoration procedures.

8.15 Logging — Found in ██████████ -Log Management Policy V1.1: The policy explicitly directs the establishment of requirements for creating, maintaining,